

GERMANY'S PEACE PROPOSALS EXPECTED TO RECEIVE A COOL RECEPTION FROM THE ENTENTE

London and Paris indicate That Early End of War is Improbable.

MOVE NOT ENTIRELY HOPELESS

In Some English Quarters the View is Held That Something Tangible May Develop: French Newspapers Discuss Speech of German Chancellor.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Dec. 13.—Although little confidence is shown in London that any result will come from the peace proposal of the Central Powers and the opinion prevails quite generally that the time is not opportune even to discuss terms, there is an undercurrent of feeling that something would be gained by making the world acquainted definitely with the objects of the belligerents.

The attitude of the British government toward the offer will be made known in the House of Commons tomorrow provided sufficient time will have elapsed to permit consultation with Great Britain's allies, and this statement is waited with the greatest interest.

If the press which supports the administration correctly interprets official opinion, little time will be taken up by consideration of the move of Germany and her allies, although the moderate opinion of the country does not favor too hasty rejection of the overtures. It is believed the German people, once they are acquainted with the object of the Entente, might be more inclined toward peace and that for that reason, if for no other, the terms of the Entente Allies should be made known officially to the Central Powers.

The possibility that President Wilson will make some suggestion when forwarding the offer also is much discussed. It is intimated that he might at least express willingness to convey the terms of the Entente to the Central Powers.

GERMAN SENTIMENT
STRONG FOR PEACE.

BERLIN, via London, Dec. 13.—Although Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg did not disclose the details of the peace proposals on which Germany and her allies are prepared to make peace in his speech before the Reichstag, such proposals are ready and will be communicated to the Entente powers if the chancellor's offer should fall upon responsive ears.

In the corridors of the Reichstag, where, after the historic 20 minute session the members gathered in knee discussion of the chancellor's speech, the general opinion expressed was that the move would be advantageous to Germany, whether or not the chancellor's offer was accepted by the Entente.

Some of the opponents of the chancellor are opposed to any move in the direction of peace except on the basis of "war to the conqueror." Most members of the Reichstag, however, expressed the opinion that the emperor's decision was wise and timely, and showed pleasure at the formal step taken toward ending the war.

A CLUMSY TRAP?

VIEW OF THE FRENCH.
PARIS, Dec. 13.—"A clumsy trap," is the caption under which the morning papers print Chancellor von Beth-mann Hollweg's speech in the Reichstag. "The trap for fate is over," says the Petit Journal. "We are no longer in the presence of the trial effort of those persistent appeals to interviewers and newspaper articles.
Chancellor von Bethmann Hollweg summoned the Reichstag, not to hear his speech, but to be confronted with an act. We do not know if at Berlin there are people so naïve as to imagine that the Allies are likely to swallow this clumsy bait, even on the moral of the events in Rumania. In any case, field Marshal von Hindenburg's statement shows that the military curries no such illusion. What is still more certain is that the treacherous German move aimed at something else than genuine peace. It seeks an internal and external effect. In Germany it is intended to convince the people that the government is not responsible for the sacrifices imposed, and that its adversaries alone are responsible for the continuation of the struggle. Abroad it desires to persuade neutrals that the Allies are pursuing a policy of ambition. That is the explanation in the pretended moderation in the tone of the speech.

"The speech merely emphasizes essential weaknesses which temporary successes cannot hide," the Petit Journal continues. "It is because Germany knows she cannot win that she desires to end the war. Her plan, however, is doomed. It will fall before the immovable resolution of the Allies."

WILSON MAY URGE A MOVE TO END CONFLICT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Germany's note proposing peace negotiations to enemy powers was expected to reach here today in official textual form from Charge Grov at Berlin for transmission to each of the Entente belligerents to whom it is addressed.

After studying it, President Wilson will decide whether it shall be forwarded without comment, or accompanied by some expression by the United States government.

Extreme delicacy of the situation, it is pointed out, would prevent the slightest publicity being given to any possible action by this government, other than perfunctory transmission of the note through the American ambassadors in each of the countries addressed.

It is regarded here as almost certain, however, that the President will take some steps to ascertain definitely the Entente Allies' attitude toward the peace movement.

WANT ASSURANCE GERMANS WOULD KEEP AGREEMENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The probability of the Entente Allies themselves making some announcement of the terms on which they would make peace is regarded here as having immense possibilities for effect upon the German people themselves.

The President cancelled all his outside engagements today and remained in the White House where he conferred with Colonel H. M. House, his friend and advisor who made one trip to Europe to sound out peace sentiment several months ago. Colonel House may go again if the President makes a move to accompany Germany's proposals with suggestions of any character.

In quarters close to the Entente Allies an opinion prevailed that if the Entente Allies made reply their first question might be to inquire what guarantees would be given Germany that the terms of a peace treaty would be fulfilled, and that a treaty would not be violated as the Allies contend in the case of Belgium. By making such a reply Entente diplomats see the responsibility of contributing the war thrown back to the Central Powers.

ENTENTE ALLIES WILL NOT REPLY IN HASTE.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The indications are that the various governments of the Entente Allies do not intend to act hastily in making a joint response to the peace proposals of the Central Powers. It was pointed out in well informed circles today that while each of the Allied governments might indicate its general attitude, consultation among the Allies under the treaty binding them to such action probably would require two or three weeks.

ALLIES ESTIMATE GERMAN
LOSSES AT 3,021,869.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The total German casualties including those in the naval and colonial services reported in the German official list for November, says a British official statement issued today, was 166,176 officers and men, making the total German losses in killed, wounded and missing since the war broke out 3,021,869.

BURGLAR TRAPS HIMSELF
WHILE ROBBING A PANTRY; SPRING LOCK HOLDS HIM

W. A. Wilkey, 29 years old, was arrested last evening in the home of John Naspick of South Arch street, which it is said he was trying to ride through the absence of the Naspick family. Wilkey was trapped when he locked himself in the pantry of the house, by pulling the door of the cupboard shut behind him. At about 8 o'clock the family returned to the house, and found the robber trying to break out of the pantry, where, however, he was held until the police could get to the place. Chief B.
Kotler and Lieutenant W. B. Bowers made the arrest.

Wilkey entered by the front door, first breaking the glass in it. Nothing was stolen from the house. Wilkey will be given a hearing tonight before

MAN'S TRIAL FOR THEFT IS DELAYED
BY STORK'S VISIT

Attorney John Duggan, Jr., Asks a Recess and Hurries Home.

O'DONNELL TRIAL CONTINUED

Illness of a Material Witness Results in Delay Action Going Over Until the March Term; Minor Cases Arranged Before Both Judges.

Special to The Courier.
UNIONTOWN, Dec. 13.—Arrival of the stork at the home of Attorney John Duggan, Jr., 713 West Crawford avenue, Connellsville, yesterday afternoon, halted the trial of Stephen Kovachovitch before Judge J. Q. Van Swearingen. Several witnesses had been heard in the case when Attorney Duggan received word from his home that the stork was hovering about his home. He explained the situation to Judge Van Swearingen and asked that the trial be continued until this morning.

Mr. Duggan had hardly arrived home when a daughter was born, she being Mr. Duggan's fifth child and fourth daughter. The trial of the case was resumed this morning.

Kovachovitch was accused by M. Der-ochin, manager of the foreign department of the First National Bank of Connellsville, with robbing the bank of $340. It was testified that he was employed in the foreign department of the bank on September 29. After the close of business on the following Monday he is said to have disappeared, and on October 3 a shortage was discovered, according to the testimony of his money drawer. Some time afterward Kovachovitch was arrested in Detroit, Mich., and had before that time removed the greater part of his luxurious mustache. Attorney Duggan represents Kovachovitch.

Kovachovitch was found guilty on a verdict brought in by the jury when court convened this afternoon.

Mr. Duggan was tried today before Judge E. H. Report on charges of larceny from the person, larceny and receiving stolen goods. Mike Klecko, the prosecutor, testified that he went into a bar at Maestown with $11 and spent $6 for drinks, becoming intoxicated. He said that Zurich took him to take an automobile ride and Klecko testified that Zurich took him out in a field and robbed him of $35. Klecko testified that he awakened the next morning in the field.

John O'Donnell, editor of The News Standard, on trial on an indictment charging 15 counts of libel preferred by Attorney A. E. Jones, late yesterday afternoon made an affidavit that he would be unable to proceed with the trial of his case on account of the serious illness of a material witness for the defense. He told the court that Earl Conway, formerly a reporter on the Standard, was seriously ill at his home in Fairport, Conn.

Conway attempted but failed to agree upon a statement which would be accepted as Conway's testimony. Judge Report withdrew the jury and continued the case until the March term of court.

Hubert Marable, a negro, was found guilty before Judge Report on a charge of larceny from the person. He was alleged that he had picked the pocket of Tony Loeck at Brownsville on November 25. A watch valued at $6 was stolen from Loeck. It was testified.

Edward Holliday of Brownfield, was found guilty before Judge Report of larceny, the charges having been preferred by his brother, William Holliday.
The charges, however, were placed on the defendant. William Holliday alleged that his brother stole a coat, two caps, his trousers and a watch.

PLAN PAPER DISTRIBUTION

Manufacturers and Publishers Will Set Committees on Friday.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—American and Canadian paper manufacturers whose representatives proposed distribution of news print paper by the Federal Trade Commission as a remedy for one phase of the news print situation, will meet in New York on Friday instead of Washington, it was announced today, to name a committee to confer here Saturday with committees of publishers and jobbers and members of the trade commission.

The Canadian manufacturers could not possibly reach Washington by Friday.

Publishers will meet here Friday to name their committee, as planned. The trade commission members are studying the situation today in an effort to have the distribution plan ready at Saturday's conference.

Killed in Powder Explosion.
YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 13.—E. D.
Hamilton of Akron, S. C., was killed and William Stolt of New York was perhaps fatally injured by an explosion in the plant of the Hercules Powder Company near here today.

Oil Prices Advancing.
PINDLAY, O., Dec. 13.—The Ohio Oil Company today added five cents per barrel on all grades of oil with the exception of Plymouth which was raised 10 cents.

JUDGE GARY SEES
SLUMP IN STEEL

Predicts Adverse Effect of Peace on the Industry of United States; Must Change Tariff Laws.

Special to The Courier.
NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Elbert H.
Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation's directors, yesterday said he believed that peace will have an adverse, if not disastrous, effect upon industry and labor in the United States unless our tariff laws are changed. He declared:

"My views are the same today as those I expressed before the American Iron & Steel Institute. Whenever the war shall close, the business of this country will be confronted with new conditions. The purchasing power of the whole world will have been very greatly reduced. Foreign countries which are now buying our products, because compelled, will withdraw their patronage in a large measure.

"Other non-producing countries will find their financial resources and credits lessened. More than this, foreign producers in great need will strive more diligently than ever to supply the countries that are financially able to pay and at prices based on cheap labor and low cost, as they have a perfect right to do.

"Our producers, including our wage earners, will find themselves in commercial antagonism with the most persistent and difficult competition ever experienced unless this shall be prevented by laws of the foreign producing countries, and quite likely all of our producers will be thoroughly protect by tariff provisions, and we should be on a parity with them in this respect.

"I firmly believe, if the present unpro-tective tariff laws remain unchanged, we shall probably meet with competition from foreign sources after the war closes which will adversely and perhaps disastrously affect American industry and American labor.

"Conditions will be even worse than they were before October 1, 1913, and the beginning of the war. If the laws shall be amended and adequate protection to American producers and their workmen is afforded, we may expect satisfactory business conditions for some time to come."

STOCKS RECOVERY

Bethlehem Steel Prices Up 14 Points; Wheat Market Quiet.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Numerous substantial recoveries from yesterday's extreme depression were registered at today's opening, although here and there evidence of further liquidation was seen. Bethlehem Steel added 14 points to yesterday's loss of 27 but this was the most striking exception to the general improvement.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Wheat traders seemed to have largely adopted a waiting attitude today, pending any decided fresh development regarding peace.
The market opened unchanged to 24 cents higher reflecting to some extent the outlook against any immediate cessation of the war.

May wheat in which most of the trading was done started at $1.65 1/2 to $1.67, the same as yesterday's finish to 14 cents up.

CALIS SINKING JUSTIFIED.

Germany Says Steamer Lanna Was Really a Norwegian Vessel.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Germany's reply to the American inquiry on the sinking of the American steamer Lanna by a German submarine off Cape Vincent October 28 was received at the State Department today.
The note contends the sinking was justified because the vessel carried contraband and was not in fact an American ship but had been transferred to Norwegian owners.

VILLA PLANS REVENGE.

Will Cross Border in Bands of 25 to 30 and Burn U. S. Towns.

By Associated Press.
EL PASO, Dec. 13.—Francisco Villa announced in Chihuahua City he intended to divide his men into groups of 25 each and distribute them along the American border and in the territory of the United States to loot and burn property.

This information was contained in a letter received from a prominent Chi-hualhuense businessman and forwarded to Washington today.

Carranza Approves Protocol.
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 13.—Persons not approved unqualifiedly the protocol submitted to him as a result of the discussion between the Mexicans and American commissioner at Atlantic City.

SNOWFALL IS CAUSE OF INJURIES FROM SLEDDING AND FALLS

Little Girl is Painfully Injured on East Apple Street.

ICY PAVEMENTS ARE DANGEROUS

Miss Rosa Denogon of The Courier, Suffers Sprained Ankle; South Connellsville Man Tumbles in Front of His Home; Accidents Reported.

The first real snowfall of the season was quickly followed by several accidents yesterday, a child being painfully hurt in a coasting mishap, while some persons were hurt by falls upon slippery pavements.

Lydia Martha Ellis, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Ellis of East Apple street, collided with a tree while coasting down Apple street about 3.30 in the afternoon. Coming down the icy hill at great speed, the child struck the tree head first with such force that a piece of wood cut her nose in two. She was also painfully bruised about the head, neck and shoulders, but no other bones were broken. A passerby carried the child to her home and Dr. T. R. Francis dressed the injury.

The accident occurred in front of the residence of Dr. F. M. Shorrick.
Some of the boys declare that the sled of a boy struck that on which little Lydia was riding causing her to head-straight for the tree. Others say that the little girl lost control of her sled.
The victim is a daughter of N. E.
Ellis, proprietor of the Connellsville Market on North Pittsburgh street.

Miss Rosa A. Denogon, bookkeeper at The Courier office, fell upon the pavement in front of the South Side Private Hospital about 6 o'clock last evening, while on her way home from work, suffering a sprained right ankle that will confine her to the house for some weeks. Miss Denogon and Miss Katharine McKelvey were walking out South Pittsburgh street when the former slipped and fell. Miss McKelvey and several other young women assisted Miss Denogon to her home on West Cedar avenue, and a doctor was summoned. He pronounced the injury a severe one and predicted that she would not be able to use her foot for three weeks at least.

Fred Hofma, 42, of South Connellsville, slipped on the sidewalk in front of his home and suffered an injured ankle. He was taken to the Cottage State Hospital.

Patrolman John Barnes fell upon a pavement near the corner of East ninth and Main streets, where he was consequently bruised and shaken up, however.

PAYS TAXI FARE

Negro, Hunted in From Davidson, Dislikes Treatment of Police.

Fourteen were given hearings in police court this morning. Sam Smith, colored, was one of the 14. Sam was lying dead drunk in North Pittsburg street, just at the city line.
Lieutenant W. B. Bowers went after him in a taxicab and brought him to the lockup in the same vehicle. The man was fined $5.00 and assessed $1 for the taxi fare. Sam grumbled about the treatment he had received from the police, and did not seem to appreciate that his life had probably been saved by them.

Hayden Moore, whose mother paid a forfeit of $2.50 to have him released on Monday night, when he was arrested for drunkenness, was locked up again yesterday. Moore promised Mayor Marietta that he would return home at once and that it would never be necessary to arrest him again, and the mayor released him. Moore recently spent a month at the county jail.

BLINDED, IS RUN DOWN

Companion's Flash Light Prevents Man from Seeing Train.

Blinded by a flash light, John W.
Mollner of Van Meter, 32 years old, was run down by a Pittsburgh & Lake Erie train at Van Meter last night and was fatally injured. He was brought to Connellsville following the accident and removed to the Cottage State Hospital, where he died three hours later.
Just as Mollner was about to cross the tracks, his friend, George Sipos, who was a short distance in front of him, turned a flash light toward him.
The strong light blinded him and he was unable to see the approaching train.

The body was removed to Funeral Director J. L. Stader's parlors and after being prepared for burial, was shipped to Van Meter this afternoon.
Mollner was a coal digger in the mines and is survived by his widow and four children, one being a three days' old infant.

Eagles Elect Officers.

Officers for the year were elected at follows at a meeting of the Fraternal Order of Eagles held last night in the club rooms: President, Julius Schraubshuh; vice president, Edward Collins; treasurer, Robert Snyder; secretary, Charles Smith; outer guard, John Lepow; inner guard, William Lowe; chaplain, S. M. Goodman.

CONTRACT IS AWARDED FOR FOUNDATION WORK ON THE NEW ELECTRIC STEEL MILLPLEAD GUILTY IN PARCEL POST CASE

Negro Admits Rifling Mail Packages; Youth Pleads Guilty to Selling Watch.

John W. Jackson, colored, yesterday pleaded guilty to charges of rifling the United States mails, and M. Thorne, alias Joseph Thorne, pleaded guilty to the charge of receiving stolen goods, when they were brought before Alderman Fred Munk, for hearings in the parcel post robbery case. Jackson was committed to jail in default of $2,000 bail, and Thorne in default of $500.

Jackson made no attempt to deny the charge. When Alderman Munk had explained what he was accused of, the man shook his head in the affirmative, saying, "That's right."

Thorne argued for a time on a technicality, saying that he did not know when he received the watch from Jackson, that it was stolen. He admitted, however, that Jackson had told him immediately afterward that the watch had been taken from a parcel post package.

"When you know that it was a stolen watch when you sold it?" asked Postoffice Inspector Williams, who was present at the hearing.

"Yes," said Thorne.
"Do you plead guilty to the charge?" said Alderman Munk.

"Yes," was the answer, "to receiving and selling one watch." George W. Jackson, father of the accused negro, was present at the hearing, and pathetically begged the authorities to be lenient with his son.
At one time he broke into tears.
Earlier he had told the alderman that his son could not be arrested and tried because the warrant and information were made out for George W. Jackson, of John W. Jackson. "But I won't take advantage of that mistake," he said. The error was at once corrected.

It is probable that Jackson will go into the federal court at Pittsburgh and plead guilty at once.

ADMIT MANY ROBBERIES

Larry Hoffman Robbed Telephone Cab-Bones in Many Depots.

At a hearing before Alderman Fred Munk yesterday, Larry Hoffman, Greensburg youth who admitted that he robbed the Pennsylvania station on two occasions, once very recently, confessed that he had committed 14 similar robberies throughout this section of the country.

According to his own story, Hoffman specialized in riding telephone cabs in booths at railroad stations. He has visited depots in Allegheny, Westmoreland, and Fayette counties.

Alderman Munk committed Hoffman to jail in default of $3,000 bail. The young man pled guilty to six charges, including breaking and entering, and robbery.

PENSION RAISE

T. M. Cunningham of Ohio Pleads to Get $10 More a Month.

Announcement has been made that T. M. Cunningham of Ohio, chaplain of the Fayette County Veterans' Association, has been placed on the list of pensioners, which means he will receive an increase of $10 a month over the amount he now receives.

Mr. Cunningham served throughout the war as a member of the First West Virginia Cavalry. During the battle of Sailor's Creek, Va., April 6, 1865, he captured a note, mounted it and, charging the enemy, seized their flag. For this he was presented with a medal of honor.

Shows No Improvement.

There was no improvement today in the condition of little Elizabeth Mc-Ginnis, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. W. D. McGinnis. She is very ill with typhoid fever and the crisis is expected to be reached tonight.

SALVATION ARMY'S FREE CHRISTMAS DINNER TO THE POOR WILL BE A FINE ONE

If the plans of the Salvation Army and its officers here carry, the poor people of Connellsville will have a good Christmas dinner as many who will buy the food for their feast.
While those who depend on the army for an annual treat will not have turkey, they will have chicken, and the dishes which go with the chicken will be of the finest. The treat, the most elaborate offered by the organization in years, will be in the form of large baskets, with food for a dinner for five and each will contain the following articles:

Large chicken, loaf of bread, 4 peck potatoes, 1/2 peck apples, pound of sugar, pint of cranberries, 1/2 pound butter, can corn or peas, 4 fruit cakes, can of celery, can of milk, pound package of flour, 1/2 dozen oranges, fruit cake, 1/2 pound coffee, pound of rice, and a glass of jelly.

The baskets will be distributed on Christmas morning. At this time, 250 boys will be given to the poor children.
They are also to receive boxes of candy. An entertainment house at the hall on South Pittsburgh street, at which the youngsters will be guests.

Quite a few things have been donated for the Christmas treat already. Captain L. N. Phelps, however, says that the army will need many yet. One man has given all the flour on the streets, and money is being gathered through this agency.

The Building is Now on Its Way Here From the West.

GROUND HAS BEEN STAKED OFF

Contractor Duggan Expects to Start Work at Once on the Foundations and Prediction is Made that Plant Will be Operating in a Few Months.

Active steps toward the construction of the United States Electric Steel Company's mill at Fayette are now being taken, the locations having been staked out and the contract for the concrete work awarded to John Duggan this week.

The mill, which was purchased by W. E. Moore and Robert Lock, promoters of the company, from a concern in the west, was shipped a week ago, but as yet has not arrived. It was raised by a Chicago wrecking company and loaded on cars for shipment here.
The high cost of structural iron necessitated the purchase of a second hand mill building.

Engineers have staked out the location for the plant, which will be built close to the river bank below the West Penn power plant. The concrete contract includes the construction of foundations, supports for the machinery and other work. Work will be started today.

The electric furnace, which was ordered nearly six months ago, is expected to be ready for delivery in the very near future. When it arrives, Mr. Lock, who will be superintendent of the plant, will remain on the scene and personally direct the work. No time will be lost, once things are in shape to go ahead. It is predicted the plant will be working in a few months.

The financing of the electric steel mill is progressing satisfactorily. Con-

INTERSECTIONAL GAMES POPULAR IN FOOTBALL WORLD

Are Likely to be Featured to a Record Extent Next Season.

EASTERN COLLEGES LEAD FIELD

Michigan Only Western School to Win a Game from Eastern Institutions; Southerners Lose Ten to Eastern Teams, Tie Two, and Win None.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Although the majority of the Eastern college football schedules for the season of 1917 are still in the making it is evident that intersectional games will be featured to a record extent next autumn. The popularity of these contests proved one of the outstanding features of the past fall and it is certain that they will be duplicated on a larger scale next year. If various rumors and reports have any basis in fact not only will there be more of these intersectional games, but the larger and more important colleges of the East, Middle and West will appear upon the schedules of teams many hundreds of miles removed from their own campus.

Whatever next season's play may bring forth in the way of victory or defeat, the Eastern college eleven have no reason to be ashamed of their records made in the intersectional gridiron struggles of last fall. During the months of October and November Eastern teams participated in 18 intersectional games against Southern or Middle Western eleven, winning fifteen, tying two and losing one.

In six games against the Middle West five were won and one lost, when Michigan routed out Syracuse by a score of 14 to 13. In these six contests the Eastern eleven rolled up a total of 101 to 64 points. Michigan was the only team to figure in more than one game, the Wolverines playing three, losing to Penn and Cornell and winning from Syracuse.

Against the Southern teams the East did still better. All told twelve games were played, of which ten were won and two tied. West Virginia held Dartmouth to a 7 to 7 score and Rutgers played Washington and Lee a 13 to 13 tie game. The total number of points scored in the intersectional contests were East, 279; South 98, making the aggregate for the 18 games East, 377; opponents 106. If the University of Pittsburgh and Georgetown University are considered as Eastern combinations the score can be increased still further while if Georgetown with the Southern institutions its victory over Dartmouth 10 to 0 gives the South one win in addition to the two ties.

The complete list of intersectional games in which Eastern eleven took part, with the dates and results follow:

PRITTSVILLE.

PRITTSVILLE, Dec. 13.—Mrs. John Truxal returned Friday evening from a 10 days' visit with relatives at Hartsville, Ohio.

Mrs. P. L. Perkey and granddaughter, Margaret Strawn, of Scotland visited their friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Blither Sunday.

Mrs. Nancy Pritts and daughter, Miss Lydia, were at Mellingsburg on Friday visiting the family of her sister, Mrs. Ezra Myers.

Mrs. Ira Crosby and son, Kenneth, of Scotland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Ridenour Friday.

Miss Dorothy Bower of Scotland visited her cousin, Miss Grace Mardis here Sunday.

The citizens of this community are very much displeased with the mail service. Three months have passed since the Bell-Boeckel Company removed the bridge leading to Iron Bridge and they are making no effort to replace it. People are compelled to go to Mount Pleasant for mail.

Charles Nicewonger, a hauler in the Newcomer Coal & Coke Company mine met with an accident Monday evening which resulted in a broken foot and one rib. The horse he was driving stepped against a post knocking it loose and the coal came down all around him. He held to the chain on the horse which pulled him out of danger. Mr. Nicewonger is a resident of the Cross Roads and his many friends hope for his recovery.

ELKS' MINSTREL DRAWS BIG HOUSE AT THE SOISSON

Entirely New Setting Is Given to the Attraction
This Year.

CABARET FEATURES INTRODUCED

For the First Time the Fair Sex Are Represented on the Program and Share Honors; Singing, Dancing and Novelty Numbers Are Introduced.

After an absence of several years the Elks' came back last night with their minstrel show. The event was on an occasion for a reunion of the Elks and their friends, many of whom haven't missed a minstrel show of the lodge since the memory of man runs back to the contrary.

The Elks' show this year is different, much different, from anything that has gone before. Since the fair sex have invaded the Elks' Home to the extent of rolling duckpins once a week, it was not surprising to find them in the cast of the minstrel show. The conventional minstrel first part was discarded for a cabaret act, and to top it off, not a single end man cracked the joke that the party he was seen with wasn't a lady, it was his wife.

The end men were in blackface, and much in the background. They came to the fore long enough to put across a joke or sing a song. The rest of the evening they were upstage, forming a background for the young men and young women who impersonated cabaret visitors.

There were three of the old guard, "Doc" Buttermore, Billy O'Donnell and Johnny Davis, on the program. The other participants were new to the Elks' performances. An Elks' show would not be complete without a Marx, and while Billy Marquardt was not among the present, his talented daughter, Miss Monica Marquardt, gave a delightful recitation, sharing honors with little Miss Roselynn Pryce, who danced.

There were no individual laurel gleaners. The standard of the entire performance was exceptionally high for amateur performers and reflected considerable credit upon Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stout, director and accompanist.

The first part consisted of the cabaret setting, with numerous solos, Russ Rollins, an old minstrel man, opened the performance by singing, "I'm Saving Up the Means to Get to New Orleans," and got it across in fine shape, giving the show a flying start. He was followed by Miss Monica Marquardt, in recitations, and then the solos, "Just One Day," by Miss Loreen Struble; "There's a Burmese Girl a Calling," by William O'Donnell; "Maoushila," by William F. Brooks; "Where Did Robinson Crusoe Go With Friday on Saturday Night," by Harry Louden; "Strapolitan Love Song," by Herbert F. Duggan; "Sweet Miss Mary," by Mrs. Ross F. Lytle; "A Dream," by Alvin A. Campbell; "Bachelor Days," by F. A. Buttermore, and "Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You," by John A. Davis. "Dogs" Houston introduced a dance, novelty along with Miss Struble's song, and Miss Pryce danced the encore of Mrs. Lytle's number. During the finale, Irt Palmer sketched Uncle Sam on a screen, which, unfortunately, could not be seen by those sitting off the sides.

Interlocutor James Barnes and the end men put several jokes across during the progress of the first part. Many of them were new, and there wasn't a Ford amongst them.

In the olio a distance novelty was introduced by John Brown, singing, "I Love a Piano," accompanied by William F. Sherman, Frank Keller and Howard Reppert, each playing on a separate piano. Not only did Johnny Brown put his song across in splendid fashion, but the three pianists gave an exhibition that was not only clever, but decidedly entertaining. Friends in the audience are still debating whether the act was improved or quered because of the fact that the pianists at no time faced the footlights.

J. C. Bixler and Harry Guest, Scott's favorites, presented a comedy, acrobatic number which was a scream. Russ Rollins and James Barnes were featured in a talking and singing act, in which Barnes wore his sailor suit and put across a recitation and solo that brought forth generous applause. The olio was opened by a song cycle, "Venezia," participated in by Mrs. J. W. Graves, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Wood, and Misses Loreen Struble, Cora Kane, Bertha King and Jane Knuffman with Mrs. Stout as accompanist. Owing to the death of his father, Robert Darkell was unable to make an appearance, his place being filled by R. O. Clabaugh, who gave a cornet solo.

The performance will be repeated tonight and promises to be even better than it was last night.

AGAINST FOOTBINDING

Chinese Hope to Stamp out Practice Which is Still General.

PEKING, Dec. 13.—The Ministry of interior, prompted by Chinese medical men with western scientific training, has just issued a circular to provincial officials calling attention to the edict issued ten years ago against footbinding and urging them to put it into effect. In remote sections the practice is almost as general as it ever was, and it is no uncommon sight to see young girls with bound feet even in Peking and other North China cities where the practice never was as much in favor as in the south.

Missionaries throughout China have discouraged the practice to some extent by announcing that girls with small feet would not be admitted to mission schools.

Reverends are now to be offered to family and clan chiefs who succeed in stamping out footbinding among the persons under their patriarchal jurisdiction.

The Safe Side

"Those of us who are wise," says a well-known doctor, "will keep on the safe side by using only those foods that contain everything Nature puts into them."

A bit of good advice, that. Many foods, as usually prepared, especially cereals, are lacking in the vital mineral elements—phosphate of potash, etc., which the body must have for perfect balance and health.

There is one food,

Grape-Nuts

which is rich in these elements, containing, as it does, all the nutriment of whole wheat and barley. It is a delicious food, affording the sweetness of dextrinized wheat and the distinctive flavor of malted barley.

Every table should have its daily ration of Grape-Nuts.

Nuxated Iron to Make New Age of Beautiful Women and Vigorous Iron Men

Say Physicians—Quickly Puts Roses Into the Cheeks of Women and Most Astonishing Youthful Power Into the Veins of Men—It Often Increases the Strength and Endurance of Delicate, Nervous, "Run-down" Folks 200 Per Cent in Two Weeks' Time.

A Wonderful Discovery Which Promises to Mark a New Era in Medical Science.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Since the remarkable discovery of organic iron, Nuxated Iron or "Per Nuxate," as the French call it, has taken the country by storm. It is conservatively estimated that over five million persons daily are taking it in this country alone. Most astonishing results are reported from its use by both physicians and laymen. So much so that doctors predict that we shall soon have a new race of far more beautiful, rosy-cheeked women and vigorous men.

Dr. King, a New York physician and author, when interviewed on the subject, said: "There can be no vigorous iron men without iron. Pallor means anemia. Anemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men and women is lackluster; the brain fogs and the memory fails and often they become weak, nervous, irritable, and discontented. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks."

"In most common foods of America, the starches, sugars, table syrups, cereals, polished rice, white bread, soft crackers, biscuits, macaroni, spaghetti, codfish, sago, farina, degenerated cornmeal, no longer is iron to be found. Nothing processes have removed the iron of Mother Earth from these impoverished foods, and silly methods of refining process have removed the waste pile the water in which our vegetables are cooked, are responsible for another grave iron loss."

"Therefore, if you wish to preserve your youthful vim and vigor to a ripe old age, you must supply the iron deficiency in your food by using some form of organic iron, just as you would use salt when your food has not enough salt."

Dr. Bauer, who has studied abroad in great European medical institutions, said: "As I have said a hundred times, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would restore for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate, or iron chloride of iron simply to have a few cents. The iron demanded by Mother Nature for the red coloring matter in the blood of her children is also, not that kind of iron. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated to do you any good otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete and prize-fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the arena; while many another has gone down in ignominious defeat simply for the lack of iron."

Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques, another New York physician, said: "I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising and satisfactory results. And those who wish quickly to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most remarkable and wonderfully effective remedy."

Note—Nuxated Iron, which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases, is not a patent medicine, nor a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituents are widely prescribed by eminent physicians everywhere. Unlike the other inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, makes them black, nor upset the stomach, on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy. In nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $300.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in 10 days' time. It is dispensed in this city by A. A. Clarke and all other druggists.—Adv.

the role of an artist gone to Paris to complete the learning of her art.

There she meets Dr. Mario Martinez (Frank Capellani) and Derwent Almsworth (Edward T. Langford). The latter falls in love with her but as the time of his marriage to Mildred draws near he is called to England where his father is dying. Martinez takes advantage of the occasion to tell Mildred that Almsworth is unfaithful to her, and he attempts to thrust himself upon her. He is nearly successful when Almsworth returns and meets Martinez. Learning of the latter's attempts to influence Mildred against him Almsworth thrashes Martinez and leaves to join his regiment. Mildred learning of this plans suicide but decides to join the Red Cross. After a terrible battle Almsworth is brought in the hospital where Mildred is working.
He has been blinded. Mildred recognizing Almsworth cares for him, and how she was misinformed. In the mous surgeon and Sybil Almsworth's sister, persuades him to operate on her brother. The operation is successful.

Langford sees Mildred appreciates the tender care she has given him and both fall into an embrace.

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

MARY PICKFORD in "LESS THAN DUST"—In her new play, "Less Than Dust" Mary Pickford has the role of a little castaway of English birth who has been reared among natives of the lowest caste of India. Her father having become a social derelict and having no mother she is given over to a native sword maker and here she grows up and becomes one of the people. The scenes are all laid in India and England and are remarkably faithful pictures of both lands in scenic sets of great beauty and wonderful effect. The East Indian environment is especially interesting and picturesque in that the splendid direction has brought to the screen an unimitable atmosphere and understanding of the lives and customs of the British officers and the lower caste.

One of the scenes shows a street in an Indian city with its shops and bazaars and all of the color and ever changing views of an Eastern thoroughfare. Another shows the British garrison and still another, the great stone temple and the pool of the sacred waters while another effective picture is made of a storm in the desert. The story is full of dramatic force and Mary Pickford's part is a blending of the delightful comedy wisdom and innocence that give her portrayals of the past such an appealing girlish charm. The big scenes during the uprising of the natives and their repulse by the troops are most effectively worked out while through all of the changing scenes there is a great human love story of which the little castaway saved. It is then learned that the derelict had married the daughter of the adopted daughter of the sword maker and a dashing young English officer are the central figures.

"ATTA BOYS LAST RACE"—Triangle Fine Arts attraction with Dorothy Gish in the feature role is a great attraction today. Jim Spencer owns a small string of horses and is racing them all at the Gilman track in order to keep down expenses and to be near his horses he boards with Mrs. Brandon, near the track. The breadwinner of the string is Atta Boy and he keeps him apart from the others in a barn back of the boarding house. Love the daughter of Mrs. Brandon has an unfettered affection for horses and likes Atta Boy very much. She falls in love with the owner and he proposes marriage. Despite the confession of love for Jim she declares her hatred for his business a race track man. She tells him how her father, a horse owner, was driven to ruin and suicide by betting. He promises to quit the game if she will promise to marry him, and she gladly agrees. He plans to make one big "killing" and retire so he mortgages his entire string of horses to Johnson and bets the money on Atta Boy.

Atta Boy runs a strong race but goes down in the home stretch and loses.
Johnson forecloses on the horses. He is bitter against Atta Boy and when no one will bid on him at the sale he orders him to be shot. Love pleads for the horse and the sheriff takes the horse away from Love. She finally regains possession of it again and in another race Atta Boy breaks the pocket and wins. With the money won they save a mortgage on the house and quit the race track forever. A Keystone com-

It's Different.
Just As Good Is Never So Good

To those who have used Pine Top Cough Mixture, there is no use saying anything. We just ask a trial from anyone who has never used it. It contains the oil of the Pine needle, said to be the best lung healer in the world. Buy a bottle for 25 cents. Always keep it in the house. A couple doses, if taken in time, may prevent a long siege of cold and lagrippe. You will know it by the green wrapper and red seal. Ask for Pine Top. Take no other. Sold everywhere. Prepared by

ATTACK OF ENEMY AEROPLANES NOW FEARED BY ROME

Presence of Pope Can No Longer Save Eternal City, It Is Thought.

ELABORATE PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

City Protected by Guns on Coast and Mountain Tops, and by Searchlights and Anti-Aerial Cannon on Seven Hills; Hope to Save Works of Art.

By Associated Press.
ROME, Nov. 12.—Notwithstanding the presence of the Pope, respect for or fear of whom is supposed so far to have saved Rome from aerial attacks, it is now taken for granted that the Eternal City with her countless monuments and works of art may soon be attacked by Austrian aviators.

The Italian military authorities have been actively engaged for several months preparing to protect the city from a raid, with an elaborate signal system arranged by William Marconi to warn the defenders of the city of the approach of enemy aeroplanes. The Roman newspapers recently published notices that the alarm would consist of five cannon shots, with the usual ringing of church bells as a signal that the danger was over.

While so far it has proven impossible to prevent sporadic attacks in London, Paris, Venice, and other cities, arrangements have been made that may at least prevent the escape of raiders who attack Rome. The city is favored by two low mountain ranges between her and the Adriatic sea, a distance of 125 miles. But should the aeroplanes escape the coast guns and the anti-aerial guns planted on these mountain tops, the advancing aéro-nauts will find in their path numerous squadrons of Italian machines. The city itself is armed with numerous high power searchlights and anti-aerial guns. The famous Seven Hills of Rome, including the Capitoline above the Forum, have each been so armed.

The Janiculum Hill, which dominates St. Peter's Church and the Vatican, the Pope's residence, has several guns planted on its brow. The Vatican is protected by another set of guns near the Castel Sant' Angelo, the solid and lofty marble tomb built for the Emperors, when Rome was the world's battle center, and later converted into a fortress.

While there is no uncertainty felt by the people of Rome for their own safety, it is certain, however, that a bomb dropped anywhere inside its limits could hardly miss destroying some work of art in the world's richest monumental city.

TREATY FINALLY IS CARRIED OUT

Boundary Dispute of Holland and Portugal was Settled in 1904.

By Associated Press.
THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Dec. 12.
Negotiations and arbitration, as the preferable alternative to a colonial war, have finally removed what was for many long years a source of friction between Holland and Portugal.
These two small countries, so famous three or four centuries ago as colonizing pioneers and who still hold important colonial possessions, concluded a boundary treaty as long ago as the year 1294 for the settlement of long-standing frontier disputes in the Island of Timor, but the terms of the treaty have only just been put into execution by the transfer to Portuguese hands of the district of Macassar and, on the other hand, the cession of the Nohutti, Tabakey and Taimru Allat districts to the Netherlands East Indian government.

Timor, which is situated due south of the Philippine Islands, in the Malay Archipelago, is divided half by the Portuguese and half by the Dutch, and the existence of such features as the Portuguese enclave of Melmuti, and of the Dutch semi-enclave of Mamatar, has at times led to armed collisions between the respective local authorities. These anomalies, which were due to the course of conquest and colonization, have now been removed by arbitration. The Permanent Court of Arbitration nominated Sir Lardie, the Swiss ambassador in Paris, as arbitrator, and his decision fell in favor of the Netherlands.
